March: Walking in Wisdom

Week 2: Finding wisdom

Introduction

Real-life experience tells us that, although everyone will likely display some form of wisdom at some point in their lives, it is much rarer to find those who are consistently wise. So why do some people seem wise, while others not so much? Is it simply something they are born with, gifted with, or something they acquire? The bible asks us to get wisdom in Proverbs 4:7, therefore there must be at least some form of wisdom that is accessible to everyone. If that is the case, then there must be a way to find wisdom in order to acquire it, for those who wish to be wise. How then do we go about finding wisdom?
