Week 2: Trusting in Faith✓

Week 3: Walking by Faith

Instructions

During this study, we will be doing a 'deep dive' into a scriptural passage. It is strongly encouraged that you study the passage and entire chapter ahead of the study. Also be prepared with your research tools, for example Google or your study Bible, as you will need to reference it during the study. Spend time answering and discussing each question with the intention to gain sufficient understanding to help your own private Bible study as you further explore these topics.

Study chapters: 2 Chronicles 13–20

Pilot text

2 Chronicles 14:9-13

9 Then Zerah the Ethiopian came out against them with an army of a million men and three hundred chariots, and he came to Mareshah. 10 So Asa went out against him, and they set the troops in battle array in the Valley of Zephathah at Mareshah. 11 And Asa cried out to the Lord his God, and said, "Lord, it is nothing for You to help, whether with many or with those who have no power; help us, O Lord our God, for we rest on You, and in Your name we go against this multitude. O Lord, You are our God; do not let man prevail against You!"

12 So the Lord struck the Ethiopians before Asa and Judah, and the Ethiopians fled. 13 And Asa and the people who were with him pursued them to Gerar. So the Ethiopians were overthrown, and they could not recover, for they were broken before the Lord and His army. And they carried away very much spoil.

2 Chronicles 20:15–17

15 And he said, "Listen, all you of Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem, and you, King Jehoshaphat! Thus says the Lord to you: 'Do not be afraid nor dismayed because of this great multitude, for the battle is not yours, but God's. 16 Tomorrow go down against them. They will surely come up by the Ascent of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the brook before the Wilderness of Jeruel. 17 You will not need to fight in this battle. Position yourselves, stand still and see the salvation of the Lord, who is with you, O Judah and Jerusalem!' Do not fear or be dismayed; tomorrow go out against them, for the Lord is with you."

Introduction

These chapters reveal some of the most powerful demonstrations of victorious faith in Scripture. Asa, Jehoshaphat, and the people of Judah face overwhelming enemies and impossible odds. Yet again and again, God's will prevails; not because the people are strong, but because their faith aligns with His purpose. Where the books of Kings emphasise political instability, 2 Chronicles highlights spiritual posture.

This is the month where your faith rises with undeniable force. God's will is not for defeat but for deliverance. His will is not for fear but for confidence. His will is not for collapse but for breakthrough. When Judah prayed, fasted, worshipped, and obeyed, they saw God's salvation show up in their situation. Faith does not create God's will; it cooperates with His will and, as a result, sees it manifested.

Discussion questions

1. Where do we see Christ? The promise "the battle is not yours" points to Christ who has overcome the world on our behalf (John 16:33, Rom 8:31-39; Colossians 2:13-15; Hebrews 7:25). How else do these stories foreshadow His victory?
2. Where do we see salvation? Judah's deliverance without lifting a sword mirrors salvation by grace, not works (Ephesians 2:8-9; Titus 3:4-7). How does this deepen your understanding of God's saving power?
3. Where do we see ourselves? In Asa's cry, Jehoshaphat's prayer, or Judah's worship, where do you recognise your need to trust God's will in the battles you face?

Closing thoughts: These chapters show that victorious faith is not defined by the size of the challenge but by the posture of the heart. Asa's cry reveals a faith that knows God can help the powerless. Jehoshaphat's prayer shows a faith that admits weakness yet trusts God's strength. Christ is the fulfilment of these narratives. He is the One who has defeated the enemy for us, now intercedes for us, and continues to lead us in triumph. His victory over sin, death, and darkness is the foundation of our faith. Salvation is seen in Judah's deliverance without human effort. Their role was to stand, believe, and worship. God did the rest.

Where are we in this story? Many today face overwhelming pressures, contradictions, and battles that seem unwinnable. Others feel powerless or uncertain. These chapters remind us that victorious faith positions itself in God's presence. It stands still and sees His salvation. It worships before the breakthrough. It speaks words aligned with conviction, not fear. God's will is not for defeat but for deliverance. His will is not for despair but for hope. As we align with Him, we will see battles won, doors opened, and testimonies multiplied. Remember, as a believer in Christ, victory is not something you chase; it is something you inherit. Now walk in the victory that is already yours!

Application questions (use scriptures to support your position):

1. A leader (who is a believer) faces intense pressure at work and begins relying on questionable alliances to maintain position. How does this passage challenge that approach?
2. A believer facing overwhelming challenges feels the need to fix everything immediately. How does Jehoshaphat's response reshape this mindset?
