Week 3: Walking by Faith✓

Instructions

During this study, we will be doing a 'deep dive' into a scriptural passage. It is strongly encouraged that you study the passage and entire chapter ahead of the study. Also be prepared with your research tools, for example Google or your study Bible, as you will need to reference it during the study. Spend time answering and discussing each question with the intention to gain sufficient understanding to help your own private Bible study as you further explore these topics.

Study chapters: 1 Chronicles 21-36

Pilot text

2 Chronicles 29:3-6

3 In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he opened the doors of the house of the Lord and repaired them. 4 Then he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them in the East Square, 5 and said to them: "Hear me, Levites! Now sanctify yourselves, sanctify the house of the Lord God of your fathers, and carry out the rubbish from the holy place. 6 For our fathers have trespassed and done evil in the eyes of the Lord our God; they have forsaken Him, have turned their faces away from the dwelling place of the Lord, and turned their backs on Him.

2 Chronicles 34:26-27

26 But as for the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the Lord, in this manner you shall speak to him, 'Thus says the Lord God of Israel: "Concerning the words which you have heard— 27 because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before God when you heard His words against this place and against its inhabitants, and you humbled yourself before Me, and you tore your clothes and wept before Me, I also have heard you," says the Lord.

Introduction

The final chapters of 2 Chronicles trace the rise and fall of Judah's kings, highlighting moments of revival under Hezekiah and Josiah. These chapters show that victorious faith is not only for battles, but can also be for rebuilding what has been broken. Where 2 Kings emphasises decline, 2 Chronicles highlights restoration. It takes faith to reopen what has been shut, repair what has been neglected, and return to what has been forgotten. God's will is always redemptive, even when circumstances are difficult. Hezekiah and Josiah demonstrate faith that aligns with God's will in dark times. Their reforms show that godly action is a proof of faith. Through faith, we can restore worship, renew covenant, and reclaim lost territory. This is the faith that says, "Thy will be done," and sees God's will revealed in mercy, renewal, and revival.

Discussion questions

1. Where do we see Christ? Hezekiah and Josiah's reforms point to Christ who restores true worship and reigns as the righteous King (Hebrews 9:11–15; Matthew 12:6-8). How else do these chapters foreshadow Him?
2. Where do we see salvation? God's mercy accessed through repentance mirrors salvation that comes through humility and faith (Acts 3:18-19; Romans 5:8–11). How does this shape your understanding of grace?
3. Where do we see ourselves? In the need for renewal, the call to obedience, or the courage to rebuild: where do you recognise your need for victorious faith?

Closing thoughts: These chapters show that victorious faith is not only about winning battles but also about rebuilding what has been lost. Hezekiah's reforms reveal a faith that refuses to accept spiritual decline. Josiah's response to the Book of the Law shows a heart tender to God's voice. Christ is the fulfilment of these reforms. He is the One who restores true worship, cleanses the temple of our hearts, and reigns as the righteous King. Salvation is seen in God's mercy toward those who humble themselves. His grace restores, renews, and repositions us.

Where are we in this story? Many today feel the weight of past decisions, spiritual neglect, or areas of life that need rebuilding. Others sense God calling them to deeper obedience or renewed devotion. These chapters remind us that victorious faith rebuilds with courage. It reopens doors that have been shut. It repairs altars that have been neglected. It returns to God's Word with tenderness and urgency. God's will is not to condemn but to restore. His will is not to abandon but to redeem. As we align with His will, we will see renewal in our homes, workplaces, and spiritual lives.

Application questions (use scriptures to support your position):

1. Someone you know feels disqualified from purpose because of past decisions. How does God's call to return reshape this belief?
2. A believer starts well in faith but gradually drifts due to distraction and pressure. How would you encourage or advise this person using lessons from this study?
